A breath of fresh air

Mansefield Lea connects wonderfully with the surrounding countryside, with the East Kirk Burn running through it along a lovely, landscaped green corridor. The National Cycling Route forms another natural corridor – leading all the way, by foot or bike, up to Almondell & Calderwood Country Park, with its woodlands, wildlife and riverside walks. Wherever you go, you're never far from parks and green spaces: life here is a breath of fresh air.

A village with town and city connections

With its pub, post office and pharmacy, coffee shop and convenience stores, sports and leisure centre and schools – all within easy reach of Mansefield Lea - East Calder offers all life's essentials. And it's just a short drive or bus ride into Livingston for supermarkets, shopping centres, designer outlets, restaurants and entertainment – with Edinburgh, too, within an easy commute by road or by rail from Kirknewton, just two miles down the road.

A healthy, balanced lifestyle

Walking or cycling in the countryside, working out in the gym or playing on the indoor courts and outside pitches at Xcite – right next door. Enjoy a sedate game of bowls or a great round of golf close to home. Or taking a 10 minute drive to go indoor climbing in Ratho - there's plenty of choice for all ages and interests.

Perfectly placed for education

East Calder is served by a range of well performing schools*. Schooling starts in the village with East Calder Primary School and St Paul's Roman Catholic Primary School close to home, with West Calder High, located in a neighbouring village, offering secondary education. And for college and university, look no further than Livingston or Edinburgh.

*Owning a home in a school's catchment does not guarantee a place at the school. Please consult the local authority for more details.

Great days out with the family

You can really ring the changes with family days out: picnicking and exploring at the Country Park, exploring Almond Valley Heritage Centre with its children's farms, narrow gauge railway, working windmill and fascinating programme of indoor and outdoor events, taking in a show and enjoying the sights in Edinburgh or discovering all that historic West Lothian has to offer. There's so much to choose from!

What our customers say

Photography from a previous Cala development

“ We weren't looking to buy a new house originally but once we booked the appointment and saw it, we knew immediately we wanted it.

We fell in love with the style of the house right away as it ticked all our boxes.

I have my own office where I can work from home and the kids have their own bedrooms which are all the same size so there were no arguments about who gets which room. ”

Sustainability the Cala way

Cala has a rich heritage originally dating back to 1875. We started building homes in the 1970s and, for over 50 years, have been creating high quality, sustainable new homes and communities. However it is not just what we do, but the way we do it that matters to Cala.

Thinking sustainably is at the heart of everything we do; from identifying the right sites, through creating a safe, healthy and fulfilling working environment, to taking a sensitive approach to development and delivering communities that meet local requirements.

As part of our sustainability journey we are aiming to reduce our paper usage by 90% across the company, including the customer journey, which is why we are aiming for online only brochures at our developments.
